

TOURING EXHIBITION
TITLE/SUBTITLE	Shelter from the Storm
Current status	Available
Size	100 Square Metres
Description	Based on primary source research done by Marina Bennett while on a Royal Society Teaching Fellowship. The exhibition follows up stories told to Marina by her Cretan mother. IMAGES AVAILABLE ON REQUEST
Content	The panels trace the stories of NZ soldiers on the run in Crete in the period 1941-45 but are told from the Cretan perspective. In a number of cases Marina was not only able to visit the scene of the stories but actually managed to locate and meet some of the Cretan people described in them. An education resource has been prepared.
Available	July 2010
Target Audience	Children and Families. Excellent education group opportunities
Special Requirements	There is a DVD of interviews and footage shot in Crete. Some interviews are in Greek with sub-titles.
Cost	The fee is nominal at $150 per month. Transport costs to and from the venue will be the responsibility of the hirer.
